Ever been mobbed by 3 ladies in stilettos? Its certainly an interesting experience....

I would divulge my inner feelings about the event but i fear i may be banned form eve radio forums for life....

and probably locked in a mental institution, but that is beside the point

Unrelated: I happen to PVP with Lady Evelynne.... HELP ME!!! SHE IS GOING TO KILL ME ONE DAY!!!

I raise my glass to all you ladies out there! 🍷

I find it a nice change to meet a lady for these kind of games.

My corp I am in has a lady that runs mining ops all the time. No she doesn't mine. she fly's the orca for us. lol

Shes also a very good leader. None of us have ever challenged her on the mining leader position. I don't think anyone of us will argue. As I am normally 10K off her hull, running security with my 8x1400mm waiting for the next target she calls out ☺
