As a member of the soon to be Alliance in question, I am ineligible for any prize. However, should any of my suggestions be used, I would recommend that the prize is donated to the next best suggestion posted by a non-alliance member.

New Eden Redemption Force [NERF]

Spaced Out Whores

The Wrecks Factor

Brothers In Harm

Thankless In Death

Insurance Contract Issued

Clone Activated

Disclaimer - I have not checked the pre-existence of any of these names in-game.

I won!

I really didn't expect that but when i saw my wallet flash for 1.2b i thought it was 12 million or something for my ores on market but was actually 1.2b. I will buy an orca and a hulk with all this isk now so thx and good luck with your wardecks but remember to spare my future corp.

Fly Safe!

This alliance was a complete scam starting with this post.

These guys used an alt to claim their own reward.

Ethan and Andro then emptied the alliance wallet on 2 separate occasions stealing billions from the Corps naive enough to transfer isk into their hands. Thankfully when I was CEO of TEMPLAR. I was wise enough not to fall for it and didn't lose any of my Corp members isk.

Still love EVE and EVE Radio, thanks for having us on the show 2 years ago!

Renius it's so good to hear from you but sad to see you are still salty after all this time. If it makes it any better it wasn't a planned scam and I don't remember taking the isk from this competition but if we did it wouldn't have been out of character. Anyway it really wasn't that much, about 28bil in total I think. A percentage of that did come from your members as well, this was after all alliance assets and isk and you were a key alliance leader.

Nice to see you still active though, I couldn't believe it when someone linked me this thread today, what made you post this all of a sudden?
