I was beaten from girls in FPS games, so actually I think it's sexy when a girl can beat your ass in a game. 🙄

If you can read, then you must be good at eve.
(Assuming that mining count as playing eve.)

There are a few ladies out there in space.

Miss Emopants, the (ex) DJ was in my last alliance.

It's always an odd moment when a female voice starts up on TS though.

That may or may not be true ☺
. I know I played well enough and had a good enough reputation to be accepted into Mercenary Coalition during it's hay day, as well as Outbreak. I also know we had some other ladies in MC that could kick some ass and were pretty good FC's as well. Just saying ☺
